ABOUT VETERANS TREATMENT COURT (VTC):

VTC's assist veterans who have entered the criminal justice system receive treatment and rehabilitation from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). Veterans are eligible for treatment court if the criminal activity is attributed to conditions like Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder, traumatic brain injury, sexual trauma and other triggers related to military service. The program is also designed to assist local agencies by having the VA provide staff in courts, provide treatment and use trained volunteer mentors who will assist veterans through their individualized treatment and rehabilitation plans.

In order to qualify:

- Your case must be otherwise eligible for probation
- You must be willing to enter the required treatment program
- Your offense must not be a "strike" offense as listed in PC1192.7 or PC 667.5(c)
- Your offense must not require registration as a sex offender
