Comment: I am in complete agreement with my husband, Greg MacDougall in my opposition to the opening of the quarry.

The scale of the operation is too large & the traffic on 58 cannot take the number of trips proposed.

Even the existing quarry that has the entrance on El Camino Real is problematic at times and it's entrance is on a straight stretch of road. I have experienced/witnessed several traffic near mishaps as the large trucks slowly pull out in front of more quickly moving vehicles.
