

The Administrative office is responsible for providing leadership, vision and a knowledge of emerging trends and issues for the purpose of supporting and implementing Board policy, and to ensure that the County of San Luis Obispo is operated in an efficient, accountable and responsive manner. The County Administrative Office develops and maintains the County budget, provides direction to all County agency/department heads assigned to him and provides administrative oversight to those department heads who report directly to the Board.