SAN LUIS OBISPO, CA – The San Luis Obispo County Human Trafficking Task Force will be participating in a regional informational summit this Thursday in Fresno. The San Luis Obispo District Attorney’s office is pleased to be a co-sponsor of this event, which is one of six such events to be held throughout the state. The summit is coordinated under the leadership of the Human Exploitation & Trafficking Institute (HEAT), which is an innovative research-based think-tank created by Alameda County District Attorney Nancy E. O’Malley.

The San Luis Obispo County Human Trafficking Task Force, created in January 2015, is a diverse group of local, state, and federal agencies as well as non-governmental stakeholders dedicated to preventing and combating human trafficking on the Central Coast.

For more information on the informational summit, please see the attached HEAT Media Advisory.
