PUBLIC COMMENTS	Bill McGuire has a complaint that he has yet to see a response to any of his comments made at past meetings. His concerns are about the DAS budget. His question is “Why DAS services are not being contract out at a cheaper rate? Prop. 36?” Wesley Davis a concern parent has foster grandchildren in DAS program, court ordered to do an adolescence program. Dissatisfied with the counselor and quality of care they have received. Mr. Davis will write a formal letter to the DAAB board and Star Graber to look into this matter. Sue McMeans also spoke about her dissatisfaction with the services provided by DAS and issues with the budget.	Handouts NCC monthly calendar
PLATFORM STATEMENTS DETOX STATEMENT PERINATAL SUBSTANCE ABUSE STATEMENT	“The purpose of the Position Statements is so that we could have a statement that we could use to inform the public and this statement is what DAAB collectively thinks on this subject.” Detox Draft Position Statement was passed out for review. The board made 2 small changes to the current statement. Motion was made by Harry Sharp to accept this statement with the minor changes, 2nd by Graydon Funke and approved by all on this date February 9, 2006. Revised Detox Statements will be available at the next meeting. Comments were made “Where do we go from here?” “Do we need a stronger statement saying SLO county needs a Detox?” Perinatal Substance Abuse statement has had many minor changes. Linda Sue will email the revised statements to the board for review at the next meeting. We have 2 statements to review. Draft A from Star and Carol and Draft B from Susan O and John Gannon.		1 st Susan O. 2 nd Pricilla Approved All
