COUNTY OF SAN LUIS OBISPO ANNOUNCES ASSISTANCE WITH DISTRICT 4 BUSINESS

SAN LUIS OBISPO, CA – July 30, 2013 – Legislative Assistant, Deb Geaslen is available to provide assistance to District 4 constituents.

The position of District 4 Supervisor is currently vacant due to the sudden passing of Supervisor Paul Teixeira on June 26, 2013. Pursuant to state statute, the Governor of California will appoint a new District 4 Supervisor (Government Code, Title 3, Section 25060). State law does not specify a timeframe for the Governor to fill the vacancy, but whomever is appointed will serve until the term expires in January 2015.

Until a new Supervisor is appointed, Legislative Assistant, Deb Geaslen is facilitating District 4 business by answering questions, hearing concerns from constituents, and working with the other Supervisors regarding area issues.

Legislative Assistant, Deb Geaslen may be reached at 805.781.4337 or email at dgeaslen@co.slo.ca.us.

The County would like to thank the constituents of District 4 for their continued patience and understanding during this period of transition.
