Dear Mr McKenzie:

I wish to register my strong opposition to the Excelaron Huasna Valley Oil Project. Many other commentators have given voice to their personal concerns. Others have written expert technical analysis disputing the applicant's DEIR. It is clear that the proposed project, with its Class I unmitigatable impacts, has the potential to turn a quiet, predominately agricultural and residential neighborhood into a semi-industrial area where a few stand to profit at the expense of many.

Sincerely,

Mark Shefrin
