

Come to the FREE Opportunity Conference

Saturday, February 26, 2011
Cuesta College

and begin charting a course from poverty to possibility

What is an Opportunity Conference?

An uplifting, educational and fun event, an Opportunity Conference builds hope, skills and motivation for moving out of poverty. You'll discover your strengths, receive resources and giveaways and meet a variety of people. You'll also be paired with a Navigator who can help with resources and advice after the conference.

Meet Donna Beegle!

Donna was born into poverty, following the fruit harvests with her family until she got married at age 15. At age 25 she was a single mother of two with no education and no job. Donna knows what living in poverty is like, and today she spends her time helping others find their way out just as she did.

Dr. Donna Beegle is the founder and director of Poverty Bridge. She is the inspiration behind SLO Communities Bridging Poverty, a team that includes many local government and non-governmental groups.

At the Opportunity Conference:

Donna will meet with you and others living in poverty in the morning. You'll feel welcome to reflect on the skills you've brought to your own challenges.

You'll have lunch with Donna and other conference participants.

In the afternoon, you'll learn about resources available to you, meet your own Navigator and receive free gifts.

Ready to Sign Up?:

This space will be customized for each agency helping us recruit participants.
