Getting Started

Overview Tools & Resources Laws & Regs Local Ordinances

Congratulations on your interest in running for office and serving the people of California. Whether you are running for your local school board or the State Senate there are some laws and regulations you should be aware of. When people run for office, the law requires their campaign contributions and expenditures to be disclosed so that the public may be fully informed and improper practices inhibited. The purpose of this toolkit is to help you learn the rules that ensure transparency and accountability in California's elections.

This toolkit is designed to help explain the rules every candidate must follow. Specifically, this tool addresses:

- Form 700
 - What is a Statement of Economic Interests?
 - How do you file your Form 700?
 - What can happen if you don't file?
- Campaign Communications
 - What do you need to consider when you send out mailers?
 - What are the rules about making commercials?
 - What are the rules about campaign signs?
 - What happens if the rules are not followed?
- Fundraising
 - What do you need to do once you start fundraising?
 - When are the important deadlines?
 - What can happen if you don't follow the rules?

To begin to get a grasp on the basic, fundamental rules of a campaign, the FPPC recommends new candidates watch the following informational video:

ELECTRONIC FILING REQUIREMENTS

ELECTRONIC FILING OF CAMPAIGN DISCLOSURE DOCUMENTS ARE REQUIRED FOR ALL COMMITTEES!

On June 3, 2014, the County of San Luis Obispo Board of Supervisors adopted ordinance 3261 requiring electronic filing of campaign disclosure documents for all committees. The Office of the Clerk-Recorder has partnered with NetFile to provide a user-friendly tool for you to meet the requirements of this ordinance.

Benefits to You

Your data is saved for future filings.

The system guides you through the filing process to eliminate common errors that would require an amendment to your filing.

You no longer have to print, sign, and mail your filing; upon submission the statement is electronically filed into our system, allowing you to easily meet deadlines.

Getting Started

If you are a candidate, complete and file a Form 501-Candidate Intention Statement and provide an email address.

You will receive an email with your NetFile Filer ID and password.

Go to www.slovote.com, click on "Elections and Voting," click on "Campaign Finance Disclosures Filing," and on the left hand side of the page under "Reference" click on "NetFile Filer Login"

Create a NetFile User and link your filer account by clicking on "Create a NetFile User & Link a Campaign Account." Use the Filer ID and password that was emailed to you.

Complete your Form 410-Statement of Organization and e-file. Print out a hard copy, sign, and mail it to the Secretary of State. (For local committees, this is the only form filed with the Secretary of State.)

Due Dates

Please remember that you are responsible for filing your documents on time. We advise you to go to the Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) website at www.fppc.ca.gov. You will be able to look at manuals and email requests for advice. Since the Office of the Clerk-Recorder is a filing agent, we are limited in our knowledge of completing your forms and are requested by the FPPC to direct any questions about completing your form to them. Their toll free number is 1-866-

275-3772. When you call them, expect to be on hold for a time, but once you get a live person, they will spend all the time you need to help you.

Please be aware that once you create a committee you will have semi-annual filings due twice a year until you terminate your committee. Those dates are always January 1st through June 30th due on July 31st and July 1st through December 31st due on January 31st. When involved in an election cycle there are pre-election filing dates. The Office of the Clerk-Recorder will provide candidates with those dates when nomination papers are pulled to run for office. The FPPC will also have the dates posted on their website for other committees that are not candidate controlled.

There is a $10.00 a day fine for every day your filing is late.

Need Help With Electronic Filing?

NetFile has tutorials and how-to videos to assist you in completing your forms or call our office at 805-781-5080.

The FPPC cannot help with NetFile. Direct any questions regarding using the NetFile electronic filing system to the Office of the Clerk-Recorder.

PROVISIONS OF THE CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES

As found in Chapter 5 of Division 20 of the California Elections Code

Chapter 5. Fair Campaign Practices Article 1. General Intent

§20400. Intent of legislature.

The Legislature declares that the purpose of this chapter is to encourage every candidate for public office in this state to subscribe to the Code of Fair Campaign Practices.

It is the ultimate intent of the Legislature that every candidate for public office in this state who subscribes to the Code of Fair Campaign Practices will follow the basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play in order that, after vigorously contested, but fairly conducted campaigns, the citizens of this state may exercise their constitutional right to vote, free from dishonest and unethical practices which tend to prevent the full and free expression of the will of the voters.

The purpose in creating the Code of Fair Campaign Practices is to give voters guidelines in determining fair play and to encourage candidates to discuss issues instead of untruths or distortions.

Article 2. Definitions (1)

§20420. Definition of "Code."

As used in this chapter, "Code" means the Code of Fair Campaign Practices.

Article 3. Code of Fair Campaign Practices

§20440. Subscription to code; form.

At the time an individual is issued his or her declaration of candidacy, nomination papers, or any other paper evidencing an intention to be a candidate for public office, the elections official, shall give the individual a blank form of the code and a copy of this chapter. The elections official shall inform each candidate for public office that subscription to the code is voluntary.

In the case of a committee making an independent expenditure as defined in Section 82031 of the Government Code, the Secretary of State shall provide a blank form and a copy of this chapter to the individual filing, in accordance with Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code, an initial campaign statement on behalf of the committee.

The text of the code shall read, as follows: (see reverse)

§20441. Supply of forms.

The Secretary of State shall print, or cause to be printed, blank forms of the code. The Secretary of State shall supply the forms to the elections officials in quantities and at times requested by the elections officials.

§20442. Retention of forms; public inspection.

The elections official shall accept, at all times prior to the election, all completed forms that are properly subscribed to by a candidate for public office and shall retain them for public inspection until 30 days after the election.

§20443. Public record.

Every code subscribed to by a candidate for public office pursuant to this chapter is a public record open for public inspection.

§20444. Voluntary.

In no event shall a candidate for public office be required to subscribe to or endorse the code.

(1) 304. Campaign advertising or communication means a communication authorized by a candidate or a candidate's controller committee, as defined in section 82016 of the Government Code, or by a committee making independent expenditures, as defined in Section 82031 of the Government Code, or by a committee formed primarily to support or oppose a ballot measure, as defined in Section 82047.5 of the Government Code, for the purpose of advocating the election or defeat of a qualified candidate through any broadcasting station, newspaper, magazine, outdoor advertising facility, direct mailing, or any other type general, public, political advertising.

305. Candidate for public office means an individual who has qualified to have his or her name listed on the ballot of any election, or who has qualified to have written votes on his or behalf counted by election officials, for nomination for or election to, any state, regional, county, municipal, or district office which is filled at an election. The provisions of this chapter do not apply to candidates for federal office.

CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES
(ELECTIONS CODE § 20440)

There are basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play which every candidate for public office in the State of California has a moral obligation to observe and uphold in order that, after vigorously contested but fairly conducted campaigns, our citizens may exercise their constitutional right to a free and untrammelled choice and the will of the people may be fully and clearly expressed on the issues.

THEREFORE:

- (1) I SHALL CONDUCT my campaign openly and publicly, discussing the issues as I see them, presenting my record and policies with sincerity and frankness, and criticizing without fear or favor the record and policies of my opponents or political parties that merit this criticism.
- (2) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT the use of character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate or his or her personal or family life.
- (3) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT any appeal to negative prejudice based on a candidate's actual or perceived race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, marital status, age, sexual orientation, sex, including gender identity, or any other characteristic set forth in Section 12940 of the Government Code, or association with another person who has any of the actual or perceived characteristics set forth in Section 12940 of the Government Code.
- (4) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT any dishonest or unethical practice that tends to corrupt or undermine our American system of free elections, or that hampers or prevents the full and free expression of the will of the voters including acts intended to hinder or prevent any eligible person from registering to vote, enrolling to vote, or voting.
- (5) I SHALL NOT coerce election help or campaign contributions for myself or for any other candidate from my employees.
- (6) I SHALL IMMEDIATELY AND PUBLICLY REPUDIATE support deriving from any individual or group that resorts, on behalf of my candidacy or in opposition to that of my opponent, to the methods and tactics that I condemn. I shall accept responsibility to take firm action against any subordinate who violates any provision of this code or the laws governing elections.
- (7) I SHALL DEFEND AND UPHOLD the right of every qualified American voter to full and equal participation in the electoral process.

I, the undersigned, candidate for election to public office in the State of California or treasurer or chairperson of a committee making any independent expenditures, hereby voluntarily endorse, subscribe to, and solemnly pledge myself to conduct my campaign in accordance with the above principles and practices.

CAMPAIGN DISCLOSURE FILING REQUIREMENTS

It is the responsibility of the candidate and the committee treasurer to be aware of and to file the required campaign disclosure statements in a correct and timely manner. The County of San Luis Obispo passed local Ordinance 3261 that requires campaign statements to be filed solely in electronic form. Government Code §91013 provides for a late filing fine of $10 per day for the late filing of any campaign disclosure statements after the deadline until the statement or report is filed.

POLITICAL ADVERTISING DISCLAIMERS

NOTE: Please see AB 990(Bonilla)-Chapter 747, Statutes of 2015 effective October 10, 2015, for revised advertisement disclaimer rules.

Political Advertising Disclaimers

Under California's Political Reform Act, committees must put "paid for by" disclaimers on campaign advertising, including campaign mailers, radio and television ads, telephone robocalls, and electronic media ads. This brochure discusses disclaimer requirements for committees that purchase advertisements or circulate material supporting or opposing a state or local candidate or ballot measure in California.

What is a disclaimer?

A "disclaimer" is the portion of a political message that identifies the person or entity that paid for or authorized the communication. "Paid for by committee name" is the basic disclaimer required by the Act on most campaign communications sent by a committee.

Who is a committee?

A candidate's campaign committee, a political action committee, a political party committee, a major donor, and a person or entity making independent expenditures on candidates or ballot measures in California are all types of committees. A person or entity qualifies as a committee under the Act if they receive contributions from others for political purposes of $2,000 or more per year; if they make independent expenditures on California candidates or ballot measures of $1,000 or more per year; or if they make contributions to California candidates or ballot measures of $10,000 or more per year.

When is a disclaimer required on political ads or materials?

Political committees must include the following disclaimers:

- Mass mailings, including blast campaign emails, must include identification of the sender.
- Paid telephone calls must identify the candidate or committee who paid for or authorized the call.
- Radio and television ads must include "paid for by" disclaimer under Federal Communications Commission (FCC) law.
- Ballot measure ads and independent expenditure ads must include "paid for by committee name" and such ads by primarily formed committees must also list top two donors of $50,000 or more. This applies to television, radio, and electronic media advertisements, robocalls, mass mailings, and print ads such as newspaper ads, billboards and yard signs.

Are the Act's disclaimer rules the same for all committees and all ads?

No, basic disclaimer rules apply to campaign materials disseminated by a candidate for their own election campaign because it is generally clear to the public that the candidate is sending the communication. Stricter disclaimer rules apply to (1) ballot measure advertisements and (2) independent expenditure advertisements on candidates and ballot measures, because it is less clear to the public who is responsible for these ads.

What does the disclaimer have to state?

The basic disclaimer must state: "Paid for by committee name." Ballot measure and independent expenditure ads paid for by primarily formed committees must also list top two donors of $50,000 or more and special committee name rules apply. All independent expenditure ads for or against a candidate must state: "This advertisement was not authorized or paid for by candidate for this office or a committee controlled by a candidate for this office."

What is an independent expenditure?

An "independent expenditure" is an expenditure made by any person in connection with a communication that expressly advocates the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate or measure, or taken as a whole and in context, unambiguously urges a particular result in an election but which is not made at the behest of (e.g., in consultation, cooperation or coordination with) the affected candidate or committee. For further clarification see Section 82031 and FPPC Regulation 18225.7.

Political Advertising Disclaimer Charts

On mass mailings, what does the disclaimer state?

A mass mailing -- over 200 substantially similar pieces of mail -- must include on the outside of the envelope: "Paid for by" and the name and address of the candidate or committee sending the mailing.

If a mass mailing is paid for by more than one candidate or committee, the name and address of the candidate or committee who is paying the greatest share of the mass mailing (including costs for designing, postage, and printing) must be placed on the outside of each piece of mail. If two or more candidates or committees pay equally for the mailer, the name and address of at least one of the candidates or committees must be shown on the outside, and the names and addresses of all candidates or committees paying for the mailer must appear on at least one insert.

Candidate:

Paid for by Jones for Mayor 2014
123 Elm St
Elmton, CA 95523

Fred Smith
7200 Oak St
Oakville, CA

On emails, what does the disclaimer state?

When over 200 substantially similar emails are sent by a political committee, the email must include "Paid for by and the committee name." The committee's street address is not required on mass emails sent by a committee, but may be included.

How must the disclaimer appear?

Disclaimers on political ads and literature must be clear and conspicuous so as to be understood by the intended public. Written disclaimers must be printed clearly and legibly. Spoken disclaimers must be clearly audible and intelligible. Specific requirements for color contrast, print font size and time appearing on screen are listed in the disclaimer charts.

Updating a Disclaimer

When a committee's name changes because of new top donors or otherwise, advertisement disclaimers must be revised. Television, radio, electronic media, or robocalls must be amended within five calendar days. Print media, mass mailings, or other tangible items must be amended every time an order to reproduce is placed.

Advertisements in Languages Other than English

Disclaimers on political advertisements should be written or spoken in the same language used in the advertisement.

Does a disclaimer have to appear on ALL printed materials or campaign items?

No, a disclaimer is not required on regular-size campaign buttons, pins, bumper stickers, or magnets. It is not required on pens, pencils, rulers, mugs, potholders, key tags, golf balls and similar small campaign promotional items where a disclaimer cannot be conveniently printed. The disclaimer is not required on t-shirts, caps, hats, and other articles of clothing; skywriting and airplane banners; or committee checks and receipts.

Does a disclaimer have to appear on communications from an organization to its members?

Yes, for political party communications. For communications from other organizations to their members, a disclaimer is not required.

Can the FPPC answer my questions about disclaimers on my campaign communications?

Yes. The FPPC can assist you with questions about disclaimers on campaign communications. Use the FPPC's advice email - advice@fppc.ca.gov. In some cases a copy of the ad will be required.

Is there a penalty for circulating or publishing literature or other material concerning a candidate or ballot measure without a disclaimer?

Yes. The penalty for failing to comply with the Act's disclaimer requirements can be a fine of up to $5,000 per violation. In addition, any person who violates the disclaimer requirements concerning ballot measure and independent expenditure advertisements may be liable for a fine of up to three times the cost of the advertisement, including placement costs.

What is the proper procedure to report violations for circulating or publishing materials without a disclaimer?

You may file a written complaint with the FPPC's Enforcement division.

Can the FPPC check the truth or accuracy of the political communication?

No. The Act does not regulate the truth or accuracy of the content of political communications, given the broad First Amendment protection for political speech.

Must political messages in literature or other material concerning candidates for federal offices include a disclaimer?

Federal election law governs disclaimers on election materials for federal candidates. Contact the Federal Election Commission (FEC) at www.fec.gov or 800-424-9530 for information.

“Do Not Call” lists

Questions or comments regarding “Do Not Call” lists should be addressed to the National Do Not Call Registry, administered by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) at www.donotcall.gov. The federal Do Not Call Registry is a list of consumer phone numbers wanting to limit telemarketing calls received. The “do not call” provisions do not cover calls from political organizations, charities, telephone surveyors, or companies with which a consumer has an existing business relationship.

Posting political signs on utility poles and other public property

Check local ordinances for rules on posters and yard signs. Local law may restrict or prohibit the placement of campaign signs on government-owned property.

This brochure presents a summary of the law. For further legal information, consult the Act and its corresponding regulations and opinions.

PRECINCT MAP RESOURCES

The Office of the Clerk-Recorder has implemented GIS (Geographical Information Systems) technology in maintaining precinct boundaries and map printing. This allows the use of data maintained by various county departments and agencies (Public Works, Assessor, Planning, Cities, LAFCO, the Citizens Redistricting Commission, and the Census Bureau) when drawing precinct boundary lines. The use of technology in these functions will result in more accurate and up-to-date maps.

Different types of maps are available on our website free of charge. Go to www.slovote.com, click on "Elections and Voting," click on "Precinct Maps" for the following options:

- To access large format pre-created printable .pdf maps (48" x 36") of the entire county, supervisorial districts, cities, and major communities are available.
- To create your own detailed maps, use the Precinct View. Using the precinct view you are able to create your own 11" x 17" maps in .pdf format which you can print at a later date.
- To download precinct map data in various formats (spreadsheet, KML, shapefile) access the Reference area at the bottom of the page.

If you have any questions, please contact the Clerk-Recorder office 805-781-5228.
