Classification: Nerve agent antidote

Actions:
1. Antidote to cholinesterase inhibitors
2. Antidote to organophosphate nerve agents or pesticides

Indications: In the event of exposure or suspected exposure to (base on symptomatology) to nerve agents.

Contraindications: No symptoms present

Adverse Effects:
- Neurological
  - Blurred or double vision
  - Difficulty speaking
  - Rapid breathing
  - Muscle stiffness or weakness
  - Headache
  - Nausea
- Cardiac
  - Tachycardia

Administration: ADULT DOSE (self administration)
1. Mild Signs: MARK I auto-injector antidote kit, 1 dose initially, may repeat once in 10 minutes, not to exceed 2 doses
2. Moderate Signs: MARK I auto-injector antidote kit, 1 dose initially, may repeat once in 10 minutes, not to exceed 2 doses
3. Severe Signs: MARK I auto-injector antidote kit, 3 doses initially

Onset: Variable

Duration: Variable

Notes:
- See Weapons of Mass Destruction Section for complete instructions for nerve agent exposure.
- Monitor for signs and symptoms of exposure that include; salivation, lacrimation, urination, defecation, GI irritation, eye constriction, bradycardia and hypotension.
- Further treatment based on base station orders