COMMENTS - Information from Agencies

a. Probation – (Jim Salio)
   They have instituted a new program called Positive Behavioral Interventions and Support (PBIS). This will help redirect the behavior of minors in Juvenile Hall. It has been used at the Community Schools, and SLO COE is providing training for staff. A new Bill will make it illegal to put a minor in his room as punishment for misbehaving. Staff needs to be taught new skills on how to deal with these minors. The new Bill does not take effect until 2018. A lot of Juvenile Halls have adopted PBIS in their institutions and it has been an effective tool in dealing with minors who are not compliant.

In September 2016 Probation ran their annual snapshot of Juvenile Probation. It showed only 116 minors on Probation, which is the lowest number of minors they have had in recent years. Four years ago there was 279 minors on Probation.

Patty attended a screening of Paper Tigers, a powerful documentary of high school children and trauma informed care. This county has a Trauma Informed Care Team involving several agencies. They are conducting Trauma Informed Care trainings.

Kim reported on the recent Keeping Kids in School and Out of Court Summit. There were a lot of different services represented at the summit. They will be meeting at the Juvenile Advisory Counsel, chaired by Judge Linda Hurst. This is Suicide Prevention Week and Kim distributed a flyer and Hotline information.

h. Superior Court – (No Representative)

PRESENTATION – DPC/JJC Allocation of Budget

Kayla led the discussion on the allocation of the $7,000 DPC/JJC budget. The budget includes the cost of the lunch, and a $25 stipend for the Commissioners to attend the meeting. There used to be a reimbursement for the Commissioners to do their required inspections. The options are to increase the stipend, or to bring in somebody or send Commissioners out for education workshops. There was a discussion about the many workshops around the country available to the Commissioners. Beyond the Bench was suggested. Chief Salio added that there is a County Travel Protocol that the Commissioners would have to follow.

Motion was made to approve the Commissioners to submit a $25 reimbursement for any inspections they handle. MOTION APPROVED
