COMMENTS - Information from Agencies

a. Probation – (Robert Reyes)

The Open House for Juvenile Hall expansion is on October 26th. The University of Cincinnati did an assessment of Probation and are providing assistance with the in-custody process. Probation hired new Juvenile Service Officers.
b. DSS/CWS – (Elise Roberts)
   They will be hiring a new director in December. Lee Collins is retiring.

c. District Attorney - (Cheryl Manley)
   Social media is driving most of the crime now. There is a small increase in meth activity. The Gang Task Force started a pilot program designed to educate staff; starting at Atascadero middle school. They are planning to do another presentation at Chalk Mountain. Cheryl will invite the Commissioners to one of the presentations. There is a new local gang called Burt’s Squad. Law Enforcement is working on documenting the members. There was a discussion of the proposed Prop 57’s impact on law enforcement. Cheryl and Undersheriff Olivas talked about politicians decriminalizing serious crime.

d. County Counsel – (No Representative)

e. SLO County Office of Education – (No Representative)
   Vivian will forward to the Commissioners an email from DJ Pittinger reporting out on SLO COE activity.

f. Law Enforcement – (Tim Olivas)
   There was a seminar on Prop 64 dealing with social use of marijuana. The marijuana synthesized today is 70-90% THC. The Board of Supervisors passed an Ordinance to stop grows from expanding in this county. There are over 250 local grows, which can be devastating to the environment. The Sheriff’s Department found 51,000 marijuana plants in Nipomo. The value of this grow was worth a quarter million dollars. The growers will spray gummy bears with 5 times the “normal” dose of marijuana. Youths can develop schizophrenia if they become addicted to marijuana before the age of 12.

g. Behavioral Health – (Kim Mott)
   The California Healthy Kids data is available. Drug and Alcohol counselors are placed in community and court schools. Kim distributed a flyer to National Rx Drug Take Back Day on October 22nd.

h. Superior Court – (No Representative)

PRESENTATION – Human Trafficking (Rebecca Turner - The Central Coast Freedom Network)
