A) Probation / Juvenile Hall / Coastal Valley Academy – (Chief Jim Salio) Juvenile Hall has returned to Title 15 restrictions due to the COVID-19 surge in San Luis Obispo County. In person services including visitation, and religious services, volunteers and in person instruction have been suspended, distant learning has been put into place. As today no juveniles have gotten infected.

The CVA Juvenile population continues to stay low. CVA has eight kids enrolled in the program. The in-person visitations are now being permitted following the social distancing safety guidelines. Virtual counseling sessions are now being offered via zoom.

B) Department of Social Services - (Angela Holmes) No Update

C) County Office of Education - (Katherine Aaron) Distant learning has been put in place per the Governors orders. In order to reopen schools, the County has to be off the monitoring list for at least 14 days. At this time, all school districts have been instructed to open in distant learning. The waiver application is available for K-6 grades; no waivers are available beyond the K-6 population. Juvenile Hall continues to do distant learning. The requirements for distant learning have increased, students are now required to do more visual contact via zoom. Grizzley Academy is in session. All guards, staff, at Grizzley Academy were tested for COVID-19 before students returned to base; all staff tested negative. Four students tested positive in the initial check in and were instructed to go home and self-quarantine. An additional 12 students tested positive over the last two weeks and were instructed to go home and self-quarantine.

D) DA’s Office – No Update

E) County Counsel – No Update

F) Law Enforcement – No Update

H) Behavioral Health – (Christine Hoffman & Kimberly Mott) The Behavioral Health Department is continuing to offer services in person, over the phone and via zoom. Two new psychiatrists have been hired one will be assisting in South County doing in person and Zoom appointments. The second will be at San Luis Obispo Youth services doing only telehealth. School based clinician will begin offering services at Loma Vista, San Luis Obispo, including Arroyo Grande, Cambria, and at the Lucia Marr independent study program.

COMMITTEE / COMMISSIONER REPORT

A motion was made by Jim Brabeck and was second by Amelia Plemons to appointing Aurora Williams, as Commissioner for the Juvenile Justice & Delinquency Prevention Commission.

I) Legislation – (Jim Salio) Chief Salio, reported on the state intentions to permanently close DJJ shift that population back to the Counties. The announcement was a part of the May revision of Governor Newsom’s budget, as a strategy to close the states anticipated budget gap brought on by the COVID 19 pandemic. The Governor proposed to stop taking any more youth into the DJJ system starting on January 1, 2021 – keeping them instead in their individual counties.
