Ms. Hewitt stated that the AJCC has made contact with employers in the construction industry. The employers have been actively recruiting mostly plumbers, however many of those jobs require travel, which can be difficult to fill if transportation is a barrier for the applicants. Ms. Hewitt also stated that the AJCC has seen an increase in higher-skilled job seekers looking for higher-wage careers, rather than entry-level positions. Employers throughout most industries, including food services, construction, and healthcare, have expressed high demand for hiring and have been more interested in working with the AJCC to help them with their recruitment needs. Tammy Aguilera (guest) introduced Christina Kuhn (guest) who is a staff member of the Eckerd team and will be reassigned to the AJCC in SLO for 6-12 months. Ms. Kuhn stated that she had attended a recent SLO Chamber mixer event and had made several new business contacts and was hopeful about her potential leads. Michael Specchierla (member) inquired about the job seekers enrolled at the AJCC and how well they aligned with the business needs. Ms. Aguilera (guest) stated that they had a variety of skilled and unskilled job seekers looking for work at the AJCC and that staff could use CalJOBS to do skills match searches for employers if there were no qualified applicants enrolled in WIOA services at the AJCC.
