Under certain conditions, disabled veterans and spouses of deceased veterans may be eligible for a disabled veterans' exemption. Depending on the disability, the disabled veterans' exemption may exempt up to $180,671 off of the assessed value of the veterans' home. Once the disabled veterans' exemption is granted, it will remain in effect either until the disabled veteran is no longer on title to the property, moves from the property, or the disability rating changes. Annual filing is not necessary.

The exemption may increase to $271,009 if the veterans' household income was less than $81,131 during 2025. Low income claimants will need to file a claim and complete an income worksheet annually. The annual filing deadline is 5:00 p.m. on February 15 for 100% of the exemption amount.

Qualifying conditions for a Disabled Veterans' Exemption

- The property must be the veterans' principal place of residence; and
- The veteran must be on title to the property (includes ownership in certain corporations); and
- The veteran, due to a service-connected condition, is rated by the Veterans' Administration as 100% disabled, is compensated as 100% disabled, is blind in both eyes, or has lost the use of two or more limbs.

Qualifying conditions for the surviving spouse of a disabled veteran

- The spouse was married to the veteran at the time of the veterans' death; and
- The spouse is unmarried; and
- The property is the spouse's principal place of residence; and
- The spouse is on title to the property; and either
 - The veteran died as a result of a service-connected condition or while on active duty; or
 - The veteran was eligible for the disabled veterans' exemption during their lifetime.
