

Privacy Act and Disclosure

You are giving personal information in the application. The County uses the information to see if you are eligible for benefits. If you do not give the information, the County may deny your application. You have the right to review, change, or correct any information that you give to the County. The County will not show your information or give it to others unless you give them permission or federal and state law allows them to do so. The County will verify this information through computer matching programs, including the Income and Earnings Verification System (IEVS). This information will be used to monitor compliance with program regulations and for program management. The County may share this information with other federal and state agencies for official examination, with law enforcement officials for the purpose of arresting persons fleeing to avoid the law, and with private claims collection agencies for claims collection action. The County may verify immigration status of household members applying for benefits by contacting the USCIS. Information the County gets from these agencies may affect your eligibility and level of benefits.

The County will check your answers using information in state and federal electronic databases and databases from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Social Security Administration, the Department of Homeland Security, and/or a consumer reporting agency. If the information doesn't match, the County may ask you to send proof.
