SCHEDULE OF BENEFITS

Disability Income Insurance – Monthly Income Benefits

The Monthly Income Benefit is calculated as follows:

Total Disability                      The lesser of 66 2/3% of your Basic Monthly Earnings or $9,000, minus Other Income.

Partial Disability                      (A divided by B) times C, minus Other Income.

A = your indexed Basic Monthly Earnings minus your current monthly earnings.

B = your indexed Basic Monthly Earnings.

C = The benefit you would receive if you were totally disabled (before Other Income is subtracted).

"Other Income" does not include sick leave benefits provided through your employer until the gross monthly benefit plus your sick leave benefits exceed 100% of your Basic Monthly Earnings.

Note: During the first 12 months of Monthly Income Benefits, your Monthly Income Benefit will not be reduced by any current monthly employment earnings until the gross monthly benefit plus your current monthly employment earnings exceed 100% of your pre-disability Basic Monthly Earnings. Your Monthly Income Benefit will then be reduced by that excess amount.

In no event will your Monthly Income Benefit plus Other Income be greater than your predisability Basic Monthly Earnings.

Basic Monthly Earnings – your monthly salary or wage on the day before the date you became disabled. It does not include bonuses, commissions or overtime pay. For Partial Disability, Basic Monthly Earnings are indexed. To determine indexed Basic Monthly Earnings, your predisability Basic Monthly Earnings are increased by 5% on the one-year anniversary of your first benefit.

Minimum Monthly Income Benefit ..... $50

Benefit Waiting Period ..... 90 days

DISABILITY INCOME INSURANCE

Monthly Income Benefits

Qualifying for Benefits

ReliaStar Life pays benefits if you become disabled and qualify to receive benefits. The benefit payable is based on the Schedule of Benefits in effect on the date you became disabled.

To qualify for benefits, all of the following conditions must be met:

You must –

- be insured on the date you become disabled and the condition causing your disability is not excluded from coverage.
- be insured on the date the benefit waiting period begins.
- send written notice of the disability as described in the Claim Procedures Section.
- be receiving regular and appropriate care and treatment.

Benefit Waiting Period

The benefit waiting period is the length of time you must be continuously disabled before you qualify to receive any benefits. Exception: You may return to work for up to 10 days during the benefit waiting period without having to begin a new benefit waiting period. The days you work do not count toward meeting the benefit waiting period. Any part of a day worked will count as a full day for purposes of this section.

The benefit waiting period begins on the first day you see a doctor and he or she states in writing that you are disabled because of sickness or accidental injury.

The benefit waiting period is shown on the Schedule of Benefits.

Benefit Payments

Monthly income benefits are paid at the end of each month for the period for which you qualified. If you are disabled for part of a month, the benefit payable is based on 1/30th of your monthly income benefit for each day you are disabled.

Monthly income benefits are determined as shown on the Schedule of Benefits. Benefits continue while you are disabled up to the maximum benefit period shown on the Schedule of Benefits. You must complete the benefit waiting period before any benefits are payable.

DISABILITY INCOME INSURANCE

Other Income

Other Income is income you and your dependents are eligible to receive because of one of the following:

- your age.
- the same or related disability for which you are eligible to receive benefits under the Group Policy.

Other Income is subtracted from the benefit you would otherwise receive, as shown on the Schedule of Benefits. ReliaStar Life considers you to be eligible to receive Other Income benefits whether or not you apply for them, until you send ReliaStar Life written proof that the benefits were denied or contested. When ReliaStar Life receives written proof that Other Income benefits were denied or contested, ReliaStar Life will pay benefits you are qualified to receive. However, if the denial of Other Income benefits is not final, you must pursue the Other Income Benefits to the fullest extent possible.

Other Income includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Federal Social Security benefits.
- State Disability benefits.
- Railroad Retirement Act benefits.
- Other government disability or retirement income.
- Worker's Compensation benefits.
- No fault accident wage replacement plan benefits.
- Sponsored short term or long term disability income or retirement plan benefits. Sponsored means that your past or present employer administered, paid part of the cost of, or made a payroll deduction for the plan.

Other Income also includes the following:

- Salary continuance benefits provided through your employer.
- Salary, commission, bonus or any other income you earn from any work while receiving benefits, except as explained for Partial Disability or the Rehabilitative Work Benefit.

Other income includes only the following retirement benefits:

- Early retirement benefits you are receiving that are voluntarily selected.
- Retirement benefits that are unreduced by age for which you are eligible on the later of the following:
  - the date you reach age 62.
  - normal retirement age.

ReliaStar Life considers retirement benefits received before age 62, or if later, before normal retirement age, to be voluntarily elected until you provide written proof satisfactory to ReliaStar Life that you did not elect to receive benefits voluntarily.

DISABILITY INCOME INSURANCE

Exceptions: Benefits will not be reduced by –

- retirement benefits attributable to employee contributions.
- retirement or disability benefits you receive from a past employer, if these benefits have been paid continuously to you for more than 2 years before you become eligible to receive benefits under the Group Policy.
- benefits paid by a group or franchise creditor disability plan.
- income received from a profit sharing plan, thrift plan, individual retirement account, tax sheltered annuity, stock ownership plan, or a non-qualified plan of deferred compensation.
- disability or retirement benefits which are received under an employer's retirement plan but are rolled over or transferred to any eligible retirement plan as defined by the Internal Revenue Code.
- Federal Social Security benefits if your disability begins after age 70 and you were receiving Social Security benefits while continuing to work.
- a cost of living increase to any other income benefit after the initial other income benefit becomes payable.

Minimum Monthly Income Benefit

If you receive Other Income, it will be subtracted from the benefit you would otherwise receive. However, after you qualify for monthly income benefits, ReliaStar Life will pay you at least the minimum monthly income benefit shown on the Schedule of Benefits.

Lump Sum Payments

Other Income you receive as a lump sum will be prorated into monthly amounts. The prorated amount will be subtracted from the benefit you would otherwise receive, until the total amount subtracted equals the lump sum payment. ReliaStar Life will determine the prorated amount using the first of the following methods that applies:

- Divide the Other Income lump sum into monthly amounts based on the amount of Other Income you were receiving from the same source prior to receiving the lump sum payment.
- Divide the Other Income lump sum into monthly amounts based on the monthly amount you could have received in lieu of the lump sum payment.
- Divide the Other Income lump sum into monthly amounts over the remaining maximum benefit period.

DISABILITY INCOME INSURANCE

Overpayment

If ReliaStar Life pays you a larger benefit than you should have received, ReliaStar Life may recover any overpayments it made.

ReliaStar Life will recover from you the full amount of the overpayment through one or more of the following means:

- Require you to return the overpayment in one lump sum.
- Stop payment of benefits until the full overpayment is repaid.
- Require you to assign any Other Income to ReliaStar Life.

Any minimum monthly income benefit otherwise payable will not be paid until the overpayment is recovered.

Waiver of Premium

ReliaStar Life waives your premium during any period for which monthly income benefits are payable. If ReliaStar Life waives your premium it is the Policyholder's responsibility to refund to you any contribution you may make after qualifying for benefits.

Termination of Benefits

ReliaStar Life stops paying benefits on the earliest of the following:

- The date you are no longer disabled.
- The end of the maximum benefit period for any one period of disability. The maximum benefit period is shown on the Schedule of Benefits.
- The date you no longer qualify for benefits under all the conditions listed.
- The date of your death.
- The date you fail to provide written proof of disability.
- The date you cease to be under regular and appropriate care of a doctor, or unreasonably refuse to undergo an examination by a doctor of ReliaStar Life's choosing.
- The date you unreasonably refuse to receive medical treatment that is generally acknowledged by doctors to cure or improve your condition so as to reduce its disabling effect.
- The date you unreasonably refuse to work with the assistance of modifications made to your work environment, functional job elements or work schedule, or adaptive equipment or devices, that a qualified doctor has indicated will accommodate the limiting factors of your medical condition.

If the Group Policy or the Disability Income Insurance part of the Group Policy terminates after you qualify to receive benefits, ReliaStar Life continues your benefit payments. Benefits are paid as long as you continue to qualify according to the terms of the Group Policy in effect on the date you qualified.

DISABILITY INCOME INSURANCE

Recurrent Disability

If you are receiving monthly income benefits, a recurrent disability is a disability due to the same cause which occurs after you have returned to full-time work for less than 6 months.

ReliaStar Life pays benefits for a recurrent disability which is a continuation of a previous disability.

A recurrent disability has –

- no additional benefit waiting period.
- the same maximum benefit period as the previous disability.

Benefits payable under this recurrent disability provision will stop if benefits are payable to you under any other group disability policy.

Exclusions

ReliaStar Life will not pay benefits if your disability results from any of the following:

- Sickness or injury which occurs in any armed conflict, whether declared as war or not, involving any country or government.
- Sickness or injury which occurs while you are on military service for any country or government.
- Intentionally self-inflicted injury, whether you are sane or insane.
- Injury which occurs when you commit or attempt to commit a felony.

A pre-existing condition is a sickness or accidental injury for which, during the 3 months immediately before the date your insurance started, you did one or more of these:

- Saw a doctor for treatment.
- Received medical services or advice.
- Took prescribed drugs.

ReliaStar Life will not pay benefits for the portion of any period of disability that you are confined in a penal or correctional institution as a result of conviction for a criminal or other public offense.

ReliaStar Life will not pay an additional benefit for disability caused by both sickness and accidental injury or by more than one sickness or accidental injury.

Rehabilitative Work Benefit

You may receive adjusted benefits if you qualify and engage in rehabilitative work. To qualify for adjusted benefits you must provide ReliaStar Life with proof of your earnings upon request and you must be working –

- for pay or profit, and
- under an approved rehabilitation program.

DISABILITY INCOME INSURANCE

The amount of your adjusted benefit will be your monthly income benefit minus 50% of the income you receive from rehabilitative work.

If you are receiving monthly income benefits, your adjusted benefit will not be less than the minimum monthly income benefit shown on the Schedule of Benefits.

If the conditions listed above are met, the Rehabilitative Work Benefit will apply on the later of the following dates:

- Twelve months following the date monthly income benefits become payable.
- The date monthly income benefits for partial disability stop.

Limitation for Mental Disorder, Alcoholism or Chemical Dependency

When disability is due in whole or in part to mental disorder, alcoholism, or chemical dependency, ReliaStar Life limits monthly income benefits to a maximum of 24 months while you are not hospital confined.

This maximum applies to any and all such periods of disability during your lifetime.

If at anytime during the 24 month period, you are hospital confined for the same disability, ReliaStar Life pays benefits for as long as you remain hospital confined, up to the maximum benefit period. After your release from the hospital, ReliaStar Life continues payment of benefits for any remaining portion of the 24 months for which you are qualified to receive non-hospitalized benefits.

Survivor Benefit

ReliaStar Life pays the Survivor Benefit shown on the Schedule of Benefits if you die –

- while receiving monthly income benefits, and
- before the end of the maximum benefit period.

ReliaStar Life pays the Survivor Benefit to your lawful spouse. If you do not have a spouse, ReliaStar Life will pay the benefit in equal shares to your eligible children, if any. If you do not have a spouse or eligible children at the time of death, ReliaStar Life will not pay a Survivor Benefit.

An eligible child is your child under age 19 or student dependent age 19 but less than 23. Child includes your –
