SHELTER OPENS FOR RESIDENTS DISPLACED DUE TO FLOODING

San Luis Obispo, CA – The American Red Cross is opening a shelter for residents who are displaced due to flooding. The shelter will be located at San Luis Obispo High School, 1499 San Luis Drive in San Luis Obispo. The shelter will open at 3 pm and will accept pets.

Currently, localized flooding is occurring throughout the county, particularly in Santa Margarita and Los Osos. Any resident with flooding or who is displaced from their home is welcome at the shelter.

If you have questions, call the Phone Assistance Center at (805) 781-5678.
