1 THAT said person has a diagnosed mental disorder, and poses a danger to the 2 health and safety of others, and is predatory within the meaning of W&I § 6600(c)-(e);

3 THAT the Department of Corrections and the Board of Prison Terms screened 4 said person to determine whether the person committed a sexually violent predatory 5 offense and reviewed his social, criminal and institutional history within the meaning of 6 W&I 6601(b). As a result of the screening, the Department of Corrections determined 7 the person is likely to be a sexually violent predator and referred the person to the 8 Department of State Hospitals for a full evaluation of whether the person meets the 9 criteria in W&I § 6600;

10 THAT the Department of State Hospitals evaluated the person in accordance 11 with a standardized assessment protocol to determine whether the person is a sexually 12 violent predator within the meaning of W&I 6601(c), and;

13 [X] THAT the Director of the Department of State Hospitals designated two 14 practicing psychiatrists or psychologists or one practicing psychiatrist and one practicing 15 psychologist, who evaluated the person and determined that the person has a 16 diagnosed mental disorder such that he is likely to engage in acts of sexual violence
17 without appropriate treatment and custody within the meaning of W&I § 6601(c) and (d).

18 [] THAT two independent professionals have been appointed to evaluate the 19 person pursuant to W&I § 6601(e) - (g) who concur that the person meets the criteria
20 for commitment specified in W&I § 6601(d).

21 THAT the evaluation report prepared by the Department of State Hospitals and 22 reports prepared by the above evaluators appointed pursuant to the above and in 23 support of this Petition are attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein.
