THE OPPORTUNITY

For nearly 50 years, our center has stood beside crime victims in San Luis Obispo County. We are searching for a leader devoted to searching for truth and protecting the rights of crime victims at every step of the criminal and victim justice system.

The Director leads a dedicated team of victim advocates, witness coordinators, and support staff who work to reduce the trauma, frustration, and inconvenience that victims, witnesses, and family members experience when affected by crime. As a member of the District Attorney's Executive Management Team, the Director helps shape the strategic direction of the entire office.

ANNUAL SALARY

$109,652 – $146,952

$52.72 – $70.65 hourly • Permanent • San Luis Obispo

WHAT YOU WILL LEAD

- ◆ Direct all activities of the Christopher G. Money Victim Witness Assistance Center and a team of approximately 20 staff members
- ◆ Make sure every victim knows their constitutional and statutory rights under California law, and how to exercise them
- ◆ Oversee the division budget and serve as principal grant writer
- ◆ Review, develop, and implement division policies and procedures with the District Attorney and management, in compliance with legislative mandates
- ◆ Build partnerships with law enforcement, community agencies, and service providers
- ◆ Lead outreach to every community across San Luis Obispo County

Our center reaches thousands of new victims and witnesses each year, helping them and their families reorganize and reclaim their lives.
